Don't let low vision stop you from reading!

Did you know we have a low vision reader downstairs in Adult Services? This reader is a wonderful resource for patrons with low vision or for those of us who just need something magnified. This machine features a 22" high definition monitor and can increase magnification up to 66 x's. Ask our staff for a demonstration to learn more!

Other low-vision support resources at the Library:

- o LPR (Large Print) Collection
- o Audio Books on CD
- o Downloadable Digital Audio/eBooks
- o e-reader devices (Nooks & Kindles)
- o Illuminated Magnifiers

Talking Book Service (TBS): Visit the Illinois Talking Book Outreach Center website: illinoistalkingbooks.org

TBS is provided free of charge to anyone who is blind, visually impaired, or has physical disabilities preventing the reading of standard print. For more information, visit illinoistalkingbooks.org.

Michael Peter Smith in Concert

Sunday, September 13 at 2 p.m. | Meeting Room A/B

One of the most captivating songwriters in the folk arena, celebrated musician Michael Peter Smith has toured the United States and Canada for nearly five decades. Wherever he is - touring concert venues, clubs, theaters or folk festivals - musical mastery is in everything Michael does.

Sarah McQuaid in Concert

Thursday, October 1 at 6:30 p.m.
Meeting Room A/B

A rising star from Cornwall, England; Sarah McQuaid's voice has been likened to malt whiskey, melted chocolate and "honey poured into wine" (Minor 7th). A captivating performer, she seduces her audience with cheeky banter and stories from the road, as well as with stunning musicianship; in her hands, the guitar becomes much more than merely an accompanying instrument.

Four Shillings Short - the husband-wife duo of Aodh O'Tuama, from Cork, Ireland and Christy Martin, from San Diego, California - will perform traditional music from Ireland, Scotland, England, Europe, the Americas and India on over 30 different instruments from around the world. Don't miss this unique opportunity to experience music played on the hammered dulcimer, mandolin, mandola, bouzouki and more!

February Sky in Concert

Thursday, October 29 at 6:30 p.m. Meeting Room A/B

Celtic folk duo February Sky, Phil Cooper and Susan Urban, will present a concert focusing on music that reflects a Halloween/Celtic New Year theme, honoring both our ancestors and the turning of the year. Costumes are encouraged (but not required). Whether the songs are self-penned or have a history thousands of years old, as long as they speak to the human condition and the human heart, they carry on the Folk Music tradition.
