Guidelines for volunteers

What you can expect from us:

- Positive Experience: The LLD appreciates volunteers in assisting the Library with specific tasks. We offer training and want you to feel comfortable while performing assigned tasks.
- Supervision: Supervisors oversee work, set schedules, track time and answer questions.
- Support: Assistance is available from the Volunteer Coordinator or appropriate staff within the respective department.
- Policy Review: As part of your training, your supervisor will review LLD Policy 415: Volunteers with you.
- Verification: All adult volunteers are subject to a background check.

What we expect from you:

- Dependability: Please arrive on time. Please contact the LLD if you cannot volunteer as scheduled.
- Professional Work Habits: Wear your LLD volunteer badge. Report to the assigned department. If you have questions, ask for help.
- Compliance: You must comply with all Library policies, procedures, and the Code of Conduct.
- Dress Code: Dress comfortably and appropriately. See your supervisor for details.
- Confidentiality: Volunteers shall maintain the confidentiality of all LLD proprietary/privileged information while volunteering at the Library.
- Computer/Equipment Usage: Computer, internet, email, or phone use shall comply with supervisor directives/guidelines.
- Ending Volunteering: If it becomes necessary to end volunteering at the LLD, please notify your supervisor as soon as possible.
